JULY 4	INDEPENDENCE DAY	FIREWORKS! Extra Credit: Be on the lookout for possible torts/nuisance actions and criminal incidents. If you are especially vigilant, you might witness a criminal procedure encounter. Keep your eyes out for any speech/conduct regulations on government property/pubic forums. And, isn't there a substantive due process right to fireworks, especially when celebrating liberty's calling? There might be a possible warranty/goods contracts issue if you, ops, someone you hear about, bought a dud. Watch out for an adverse possession claim by that annual trespasser. Finally, keep in mind evidentiary problems just in case you witness a crime, police encounter, tort, easement issue for that splendid viewpoint, a constitutional deprivation, or just happen to bump into a future client!
