

STEPHEN A. BAIN
WELBORN SULLIVAN MECK & TOOLEY, P.C.
821 17th Street, Suite 500
Denver, Colorado 80202

Telephone: 303-376-4471
Facsimile: 303-832-2366
E-mail: sbain@wsmtlaw.com

EDUCATION

B.A., Yale University, 1984, cum laude, with distinction in major (history).
Walter McClintock Prize – for best undergraduate essay on history of American West.

J.D., Cornell Law School, 1988.
Cornell International Law Journal, Editor.

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE LAW

Colorado, U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado, Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals.

EXPERIENCE

Welborn Sullivan Meck & Tooley, P.C. Shareholder, January 2002 - present
Denver, Colorado and Almaty, Kazakhstan Associate, February 1997 - December 2001
General environmental and natural resources practice. Experience includes negotiating international petroleum and mining contracts, giving advice on environmental permitting and compliance, and defending environmental claims. Nominated as finalist for Denver Business Journal's Best of the Bar for International Trade and Finance (2005).

U.S. Peace Corps, Environmental Management
Consultant

Czech Ministry of Environment September 1994 - September 1996
Chomutov, Czech Republic
Advisor to governmental entities in North Bohemian coal basin. Consulted on environmental projects relating to development of coal, air quality and waste management.

Holland & Hart Associate
Denver, Colorado January 1989 - June 1994
General environmental practice with emphasis on Clean Air Act and RCRA. Experience includes commenting on proposed environmental laws, giving advice on environmental permitting and compliance, and defending state and EPA civil and administrative actions. Represented Republic of Kazakhstan in United World Trade, Inc. v. Mangyshlakneft Oil Prod., 33 F.3d 1232 (10th Cir. 1994).

Publication and speaking: general editor and contributing author, Environmental Regulation of Colorado Real Property (Bradford 2007); guest lecturer on international petroleum law for Oil and Gas Law and International Petroleum Law classes at University of Denver (1999-2008); adjunct professor of International Petroleum Law at University of Denver (2005-2008); speaker, legal aspects of exporting (World Trade Center Denver 2005); instructor, business law for international trade (World Trade Center Denver 2002-2003); speaker, environmental issues in property development (National Business Institute 2002-2004, 2007); speaker, environmental issues for public entities (Lorman 2001); speaker, representing the foreign investor in Central Asia (Colorado Bar Association, International Section 1999).

Bar Memberships: American, Colorado (Chair of International Law Section 2001-2002), and Denver

Bar Associations.