

Welcome to University of Denver Sturm College of Law!

I am Katy Sparks, your LexisNexis representative and I'd like to say "welcome" on behalf of LexisNexis!

Q: So, what is LexisNexis and why should you care?

A: LexisNexis is a comprehensive, intuitive, easy-to-use legal research system that will help you quickly find the research information you need to succeed now in law school and in legal practice beyond. LexisNexis is a tool you'll be using throughout your law school career to help you in class, prepare for exams, research for your papers and especially on law review or a journal. Legal research is complex and requires you to use a system that is efficient, powerful, and comprehensive – that's LexisNexis in a nutshell!

Q: What does the LexisNexis representative do for DU Law students?

A: As your LexisNexis representative, I am here to help you access and learn to use the power of the LexisNexis research system and all its associated tools and benefits. You'll be required to take group classes with me as well as having the opportunity for individual training and additional group classes so that by the time you graduate you are confident in your legal researching capabilities.

Q: How can LexisNexis help me succeed in law school?

A: In your first few months of law school you'll meet with me and learn the basics of using the LexisNexis system. That means I'll teach you how to pull up case briefs for class, show you how to do basic legal research, and even help you with your research for your first year writing assignments. Throughout law school you'll learn more advanced tools on Lexis that will help you with your briefs, research papers, law review articles, job searching and more.

Q: What are the benefits of using LexisNexis?

A: Aside from providing the research tools you need to succeed as a lawyer and law student, you can also earn valuable LexisNexis Reward Points which can get you a tremendous range of free gifts including gift cards for retailers such as Starbucks and iTunes, items such as electronics and sports equipment, and tons of other gift options! And, of course, it can help you learn and understand all of those important cases during your first year law school classes!

Congrats on your exciting new path learning the law. I look forward to meeting all of you!

Sincerely,

Katy
