

THE
TRANSPORTATION LAW JOURNAL

IS EXCITED TO ANNOUNCE THE FALL 2009
CANDIDACY!!

There are many great reasons to join the Transportation Law Journal...

- The Transportation Law Journal covers all fields of law and variety of legal issues, including but not limited to – Contracts, Torts, Civil Procedure, Constitutional Law, Administrative Law, Labor and Employment Law, Environmental Law, Property Law, Criminal Law, Patent/Intellectual Property Law, Rail Carrier Law, Admiralty/Maritime Law, Aviation Law, and Motor Carrier Law
- Become part of the Nation's only student managed transportation journal and the official law journal of the Transportation Lawyers Association!!!
- Earn academic credit(s) for participation
- Reasonable work load with sufficient time left for part-time employment and a full course load or for busy evening students who want to participate on a nationally recognized journal prior to Law Review
- Potential publication and fulfillment of the upper-level writing requirement if you author a student note
- Opportunity for appointment or election to the Executive Board or Advanced Editing positions after the successful completion of a semester as Staff Editor

And let's not forget ...

- Free snacks, cookies and beverages throughout the semester – especially during edits
- Advance your editing skills
- Great social events held throughout the year
- Network with practicing attorneys from around the globe in a variety of practice areas!!

When to apply

Candidacy packets will be available via TWEN:

*** Starting Friday, September 4, 2009 at 12:00pm

*** Due via TWEN by Friday, September 18, 2009 by 11:00pm

How to apply:

1. Packets will be available to download from the TWEN site on Westlaw starting September 4, 2009 at 12:00pm. Details on how to access the packet will be emailed out soon.
2. The average application takes about six to eight hours to complete. The application consists of a short bluebook exercise and a brief writing exercise on a topic.

Want to know more? Come see what an actual edit looks like or talk to our friendly staff and learn what it has been like for them to work on a nationally renowned journal!! We can schedule a meeting around everyone's schedule.

For more information, feel free to contact Justin Marks (Editor-in-Chief) at jmarks11@law.du.edu, Jay M. Sim (Managing Editor) at jsim10@law.du.edu, or Justin Robbins (Candidacy Editor) at jrobbins11@law.du.edu. We look forward to having you on the Transportation Law Journal!