

SCHOOL OF LAW

Michael M. Greenfield
George Alexander Madill Professor of Contracts and Commercial Law

September 21, 2009

To: Law School Deans
From: Michael M. Greenfield, Chair
ACCFSL Annual Writing Competition Committee

Enclosed please find an announcement for the 2010 Writing Competition sponsored by the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers.

The College would greatly appreciate your distributing, publishing, or otherwise disseminating this announcement to your students and to your faculty. The winner in each category of the competition receives a cash award and an expenses-paid trip to the Spring meeting of the College.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at:

(314) 935-6428, or michael.greenfield@wustl.edu.

I thank you in advance for your cooperation with this request.

Very sincerely,

Michael M. Greenfield
Chair, ACCFSL Writing Competition Committee

President
L. Richard Fischer

President-Elect
David Willenzik

Treasurer
Nessa Feddis

Secretary
James L. Brown

Immediate Past President
Ralph J. Rohner

2010 WRITING COMPETITION

The American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers is pleased to announce awards to be presented for

- (a) the best book or book chapter
- (b) the best publishable article or substantial book review
- (c) the best student case note or comment on a topic dealing with consumer financial services law.

The awards include cash payments of $2500, $2000, and $1000, respectively, a Certificate of Recognition from the College, and travel expenses to attend the Spring 2010, meeting of the College. In any given year, depending on submissions, all three awards, or fewer, may be made.

Entries for an award may be published or unpublished, and must be submitted to the College before December 1, 2009. Unpublished entries should be typed, double-spaced, and in law review format. The winners will be honored at the annual meeting of the College held in conjunction with the Spring Meeting of the Business Law Section of the American Bar Association, to be held in Denver in April 2010.

The American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers is a nonprofit association of attorneys who have made significant contributions to consumer financial services law over an extended period of time. Its members include academics, present and former federal and state regulatory and enforcement officers, authors in the field, private practitioners, counsel for financial institutions and other service providers, and representatives of consumer protection and advocacy organizations.

Eight copies of each entry should be submitted to:

Michael M. Greenfield, Chair, ACCFSL Writing Competition &
George Alexander Madill Professor of Contracts and Commercial Law
School of Law
Washington University in St. Louis
One Brookings Dr.
St. Louis, MO 63130.

More information on the College may be found at our web-site: <http://www.accfsl.org>