International Legal Studies Program (ILSP)
CERTIFICATE REQUIREMENTS

Minimum Credit Requirement: 15

GPA Requirement: 2.3 or better;
3.0 cumulative in Certificate courses

Faculty Director: Professor Celia Taylor

TO QUALIFY STUDENTS MUST:

1. Complete International Law (L4320)

2. Complete two (2) Core Courses from the online list of "Core International and Comparative Law Courses"

3. Complete at least six (6) credits from either additional Core Courses or Elective Courses from the online list of "Elective International, Comparative and Foreign Law Courses" (Please see above link)

    • Participation in the Jessup Moot Court competition, the International Commercial Arbitration Moot or the Denver Journal of International Law and Policy (DJILP) may count for up to two (2) hours of elective credit per activity.

    • Courses in International Law taken as part of a study abroad program may count as elective courses, if approved in writing by the ILSP Faculty Director and the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs.

4. Complete a research paper satisfying Denver Law's upper-level writing requirement on an International Law topic. This requirement must be certified (see online Certification Form) by the student's course instructor or directed research faculty supervisor.

Interested Students:
If you would like to receive important information about ISLP events and activities, program courses, job opportunities and more, please add yourself to the list of interested students here.

To declare your intent to complete the certificate program:
Please complete this form to formally declare the certificate. The deadline to declare is the end of the add/ drop period in the semester preceding that of your intended graduation, but we encourage you to declare as soon as you decide you intend to complete the certificate. In addition to declaring the certificate, you must also apply to graduate with the certificate at the same time that you apply to graduate with the JD degree. Please contact the SCOL Office of the Registrar with any questions/concerns.